Held at the Tahir Foundation Building—located at the National University of Singapore and hosted by the Center for Health Services and Policy Research (CHSPR) at the Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health (SSHSPH) and the National University Hospital System of Singapore (NUHS)—this meeting will provide a forum to discuss innovative developments in the field of health preference research. Chaired by Kirsten Howard, PhD, and Mark Oppe, PhD, the meeting will include approximately 14 oral presentations, lunch, and a business session. After the meeting, IAHPR will host an offsite dinner for all meeting attendees.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The International Academy of Health Preference Research (IAHPR) is soliciting abstracts for oral presentations and posters to be presented at the 5th Meeting in Singapore, on 2 September 2016.

IAHPR welcomes submissions on a variety of health preference topics, including, but not limited to conjoint analysis in health, valuation of health outcomes, preference methods, and preference tools and technologies (e.g., advanced directives and decision aids). There will be time for approximately 14 presentations. Speakers will present their research in a 15-minute format, followed by audience discussion. Attendees and IAHPR members may view the presentations in-person or via live webinar. All presentations must be in English.

Submissions will be accepted until 1 June 2016. Notifications and comments will be provided by early-July. All submissions will be reviewed by all IAHPR members.

Interested researchers should submit online at www.iahpr.org
