Scientific Meeting

Saturday, 4 November 2017
from 08:00 to 17:30

Chaired by Karin Groothuis-Oudshoorn, PhD and Terry Flynn, PhD, this half-day symposium and full-day meeting will provide a forum to present and discuss innovative developments in health preference research. The symposium will focus on "The Econometrics of Preference Heterogeneity" and include a panel discussion over alternative analytical approaches to modeling heterogeneous preferences. The scientific meeting will include peer-reviewed podium presentations, lunch (with poster session), and a business session. If you are interested in presenting your research at the meeting, the abstract submission system will open in May and close 8 August 2017.

All are welcome to register for the symposium ($125 USD for students; $250 USD for non-students), for the meeting ($175 USD for students; $350 USD for non-students) or for both ($250 USD for students; $500 USD for non-students). Early registration will open in August and close on 19 September 2017. Afterwards, all fees double. Attendance is limited.
