SYMPOSIUM

SUNDAY, 14 OCTOBER 2018
FROM 8:00 TO 12:00

Chaired by Meenakshi Bewtra, PhD and Jan Ostermann, PhD, this full-day meeting and half-day symposium in Montréal, Québec, Canada will provide a forum to present and discuss innovative developments in health preference research. The Scientific Meeting will include peer-reviewed podium presentations, lunch (with poster session), and a business session followed by a networking dinner. If you are interested in presenting your research at the Meeting, the abstract submission system will open in April and close 8 June 2018.

The Symposium will focus on “Support Tools for Preference-Sensitive Decisions” and include a panel discussion on developing and integrating such tools in clinical practice. Both the meeting and symposium will be held at the Centre Mont-Royal (right).
